THE WHITTAKER CASE.

Special Dispatch to The Bee. CHICAGO, May 17.—A. p. m.—The Journal's Washington special says: Secretary Ramsey said today, in reply to inquiry, that he had not read the report of District Attorney Townsend in the Whittaker case, and therefore had no opinion to express about it. This report would not make public by the department until the report of the court was received, when the case would be reviewed by the proper officer and the result made known to the country.

THE ADJOURNMENT RESOLUTION. We received in the senate to-day and referred to the appropriation committee. One of the most prominent republican senators said today that the resolution in the senate would be opposed to adjournment until provision was made for the pay of United States marshals. He expressed the opinion that no action on the resolution would be had at present.

THE HOTELS. The hotels are filling up rapidly with strangers, who come to witness the Hanlon-Courtney race, and a large number of people are expected to arrive from the river bank to witness the rowers practice. Betting is in favor of Hanlon.

RUSSIAN PERSECUTION. A bill was introduced in the house calling upon the president for all correspondence in regard to the persecution of the Jews by the Russian government.

A HOUSE SENATOR. At a meeting of the house Pacific railroad committee to-day, a letter making charges of corruption and bribery against the Pacific railroad committee, written by J. A. Granger, contractor, was submitted. The letter charges ninety thousand dollars in money and one hundred thousand dollars worth of land grant money were paid to United States Senators and that $1,000,000 worth of bonds were distributed among members of the house. The writer says he can produce evidence and furnish witnesses to sustain the charges, and asks for an investigation. No action has been taken in regard to the letter, the committee desiring:

First—To ascertain as to responsibility of the writer, and whether he is not merely engaged in a stock jobbery after being asked the house under investigation. The matter has caused quite a sensation among members who have been informed about the letter.

PUSHED THROUGH. The river and harbor appropriation bill passed through the house under suspension of the rules by a vote of 179 to 42.

MANY MEMBERS VOTED FOR THE PASSAGE OF THE BILL WHILE OBJECTING TO SOME OF THE APPROPRIATIONS IN IT.

THE UTE OUTRAGE. Special Dispatch to The Bee. WASHINGTON, May 17.—A. p. m.—The democrats in congress are directly responsible for the condition of affairs and murders in the Ute country. The secretary of the interior has done all in his power to obtain action on the agreement which he made with the Utes. If congress had acted promptly the miners might have gone into the reservation without trouble, as the Indians would have a settlement according to the agreement made, and movements of whites would not have been led to attacks upon them by Utes, but the senate kept the bill ratifying the agreement nearly three weeks, and the house has had it a full month without action. Now, even in the face of a threatened general war with the Utes, it is proposed by those who are pushing for speedy adjournment to let this important matter go over until next winter.

GETTING BETTER. Special Dispatch to The Bee. WASHINGTON, May 18.—A. m.—Assistant Secretary of State Hunt is better and is expected to recover.

FAYAN'S BILL. The senate judiciary committee voted to recommend its passage, with few amendments, of Bayard's bill to regulate the pay and appointment of deputy marshals for service in reference to federal elections.

EXTRA SESSION. A statement is made on the highest authority that, should congress adjourn without making proper provisions for counting the electoral vote, the president will at once issue a proclamation calling an extra session. That in his message on this subject, should an extra session become necessary, he will take substantially the same ground as that entertained by

REVIVING SLAVE TRADE.

Special Dispatch to The Bee. LONDON, May 18.—A. m.—A correspondent writing from Edinburgh says that since the departure from Egypt of Gordon Pasha there has been a great revival of the slave trade on the Red Sea, which is greatly encouraged by reports circulated for awhile that Gordon Pasha was dismissed from office. A dispatch from Alexandria says that further arrivals of slaves at Assat and Cairo and the apathy of Egyptian officials because of the Egyptian government, by request of the British consul general, to entrust Coast Sale, an Austrian officer, with full permission to assist.

AN INDIAN RING. The Times, in its financial article this morning says: The question of the business management of the India office continues to occupy the attention of many persons in the city. It is said that in one case while the India office was paying from 30 to 45 shillings per ton for conveying rails to India the great Peshawar railway was paying only 35 shillings per ton. In other cases a discrepancy of 5 shillings per ton between charges in government contracts and those on the rival companies are too numerous, and the most infamous system of bribery has prevailed for years and the government of India was compelled to pay the highest possible price for everything.

IN SHORT, no task of the Marquis of Salisbury promises to be more difficult than that of reforming the India office. The subject will likely come before parliament soon after the opening.

A DEBT TIE-UP. Special Dispatch to The Bee. PARIS, May 18.—A. m.—A rumor is current that the French government intends to recall M. Couvier, the present minister in Constantinople, and to send M. Joubert to co-operate with Mr. Gouhen, the newly appointed British minister, relative to the financial state of the Turkish Empire.

SYRIAN PAIN. Special Dispatch to The Bee. LONDON, May 18.—A. m.—A Geneva correspondent says: The Bund published at Lullia, France, contains a letter from a Swiss gentleman living in Damascus, which states that the people of that part of Syria are described as being at the last end of misery and want. It is heart-breaking to witness the desperate struggle between the desperate and the desperate. The annual convention of the Hamilton county Sunday School Association will be held at the Presbyterian church of this city, beginning Tuesday, June 15th, next.

MORE AID. PADDY MILES.

CHICAGO, May 18.—A. m.—Secretary Keogh, of the republican national committee, is in the city, and will open his office. The different state delegations to the convention are as follows:

Alabama, Clinton; Arkansas, Palmer; California, Palmer; Colorado, Palmer; Connecticut, Palmer; Delaware, Palmer; Florida, Palmer; Georgia, Palmer; Idaho, Palmer; Illinois, Palmer; Indiana, Palmer; Iowa, Sherman; Kansas, Palmer; Kentucky, Palmer; Louisiana, Palmer; Maine, Palmer; Maryland, Palmer; Massachusetts, Palmer; Michigan, Palmer; Minnesota, Palmer; Missouri, Palmer; New Hampshire, Palmer; New Jersey, Palmer; New York, Palmer; North Carolina, Palmer; Ohio, Sherman; Oregon, Palmer; Pennsylvania, Palmer; Rhode Island, Palmer; South Carolina, Sherman; Tennessee, Palmer; Texas, Palmer; Vermont, Palmer; Wisconsin, Palmer; Washington, Palmer.

The plan for the convention hall in the Exposition building has progressed far that nothing remains to be done except putting in the seats and decorations. The committee on local arrangements will itself take charge of the decorations. On the north side of the hall will be the national flag of Lincoln and the memorable words: "With malice towards none and charity for all."

Hanging from the theater of the roof of the hall will be a double header of Washington, and above on a stage will be a new front view draped portrait of Zach Chandler.

The roof is elevated at the principal level and the space is quite wide, and the building that covers this will be painted blue and white; the rest of the building will be painted in the colors of the American flag.

The hall will be fifteen large portraits of distinguished American statesmen of the past. The only remaining decorations will be such flags as the public will furnish.

LINCOLN LINES.

Special Dispatch to The Bee. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 17, 4 p. m.—The town is rapidly filling with politicians. Among this morning's arrivals was John A. Logan. Since his arrival from Washington, Senator Logan has positively refused to be interviewed, but this morning he had a brief interview with a correspondent, during which he denied in the most emphatic manner any intention or desire to "boast" Illinois republicans.

Of an in favor of the renomination of General Grant for the presidency simply and only because I believe, under the circumstances, he is the strongest and most available man in the contest. I am not making any appeal on the part of Grant. But should either of the others, Blaine or Edmunds or the Chicago convention, be the choice of the Chicago convention, I shall abide by the decision of the properly constituted authority. I shall support the nominee honestly and as cordially as I can. I know some not altogether disinterested persons have tried to make it appear that I was attacking Washington, and some have gone so far as to say that I inspired a certain article which appeared in The St. Louis Globe-Democrat some days ago. Now to all such statements I want to enter a positive and unqualified denial. I have no sort of hostility to Mr. Washburne. Why should I? He says he is for Grant; so am I. We are now working in the same direction. Now, as to the charge that Cameron and Conkling and myself have formed a conspiracy to force Grant upon the republican party against the wish of the majority, no more cruel or false assertion was ever made. I made my choice of Grant as a candidate without the slightest reference to Conkling or Cameron. I could not have prevented, had I desired, Conkling from supporting Grant or opposing Blaine. Conkling is too good a fellow to be controlled by me or in my interest. The same is true of Cameron. These gentlemen are far more interested in their own States, and in themselves than in me. Now, what would have been said of me had I supported Blaine against the only candidate from my own state, and further, I state emphatically that there has been no conspiracy or even concert of action, except as is proper between Conkling, Cameron and myself. There have been no promises or trades; nothing of the sort. And all these statements which you see going about to the effect that there is a senatorial syndicate in this affair are sheer nonsense."

CHICAGO, May 18.—A. m.—Secretary Keogh, of the republican national committee, is in the city, and will open his office. The different state delegations to the convention are as follows:

Alabama, Clinton; Arkansas, Palmer; California, Palmer; Colorado, Palmer; Connecticut, Palmer; Delaware, Palmer; Florida, Palmer; Georgia, Palmer; Idaho, Palmer; Illinois, Palmer; Indiana, Palmer; Iowa, Sherman; Kansas, Palmer; Kentucky, Palmer; Louisiana, Palmer; Maine, Palmer; Maryland, Palmer; Massachusetts, Palmer; Michigan, Palmer; Minnesota, Palmer; Missouri, Palmer; New Hampshire, Palmer; New Jersey, Palmer; New York, Palmer; North Carolina, Palmer; Ohio, Sherman; Oregon, Palmer; Pennsylvania, Palmer; Rhode Island, Palmer; South Carolina, Sherman; Tennessee, Palmer; Texas, Palmer; Vermont, Palmer; Wisconsin, Palmer; Washington, Palmer.

The plan for the convention hall in the Exposition building has progressed far that nothing remains to be done except putting in the seats and decorations. Plighting Savage Murderers. Special Dispatch to The Bee. DEADWOOD, D. T., May 17.—A. p. m.—The twenty-five men who are in pursuit of the murderers of John O'Connell, a wealthy farmer, have had a fight with a party of eighteen Indians, on a tributary to the Little Powder River. The conflict lasted two hours, and resulted in the death of one white man and four savages, scattering the remaining redskins, and the capture of about eighty ponies, stolen from the slaughtered frontiersmen.

Capture of Marine Thieves. Special Dispatch to The Bee. CHICAGO, May 17.—A. p. m.—The Journal's New York special says: Five thieves early this morning boarded a schooner at anchor in Flushing Bay. Awakened by their tramp the mate, armed with two revolvers, rushed on deck and was received with a fusillade, but all shots missed him. He then fired upon the thieves, who hurriedly retreated to their boat, which was upset in the haste to get away, and four, clinging to the boat, drifted with the tide. The fifth one went down. The mate and seaman leaped into their own boat, and picking up the swimming thieves one by one, secured bound them and carried them back to the schooner. They are now in jail, while the Maritime association is considering the matter of rewarding the mate.

GAGES DOUBLE HEADER. Paddock Undertakes to Bag the County For Grant But Two Delegations Will Go to Columbus.

Special Dispatch to The Bee. BRATTLESBURY, Neb., May 18.—A. m.—There was a desperate contest in the county convention, Saturday, between the Blaine and Grant delegates. Paddock forced the issue by telegraph and insisted that Gages county must stand by her senator and send a Grant delegation. After nine hours of tumult the convention adjourned sans die without choosing any delegates.

Colby at 11:30 p. m., Saturday, called the meeting to order and selected a Grant delegation. The central committee will appoint a delegation for the regular republicans of this county are two to one against Grant and Paddock, in spite of the utmost efforts of the Paddock strength reinforced by routes agents from the Union Pacific and St. Joe & Western.
